

A meeting to discuss

The Right to Speak Out!

In defence of safe NHS and public services, and the staff that provide them

Thursday 12 February

6.30pm registration, 7pm - 9pm
at BMA House, Tavistock Sq, WC1H 9JP.

Everyone attending must register in advance online:

<http://web2.bma.org.uk/GenCourses.nsf/ver?OpenForm&Q=LRC--9SJCSF>
in case of difficulties email: ebennett@bma.org.uk or call 020 8655 8815

Speakers include: Dr. Kim Holt - whistle blower and founder of Patients First, an organisation of health staff who have suffered reprisals for raising concerns, working to protect whistle blowers. Tracey Boylin - HR director for an NHS Trust who was removed from her role when she tried to stand up for bullied clinicians. Polly Toynbee - Guardian Columnist and Julie Davies, NUT branch Secretary, Haringey, suspended on charges related political activity and organising members

Sponsored by: Waltham Forest Save Our NHS, Reinstate Charlotte Monro campaign, Newham Save our NHS, Tower Hamlets Keep Our NHS Public - Save Lewisham Hospital Campaign and hosted by BMA London Regional Council.